

INDEX PREFACE

The index to the code is primarily for assisting the code user to find provisions not readily accessible through the table of contents. An index entry has been created for each section of the code. Additional entries have been made for the following topics:

- Bond. When a bond is required for a particular enterprise, a separate entry in the index has been created under Bonds.
- License. Any section requiring a license is also indexed under Licenses.
- Permit. Any section requiring a permit is also indexed under Permits.

CROSS-REFERENCES

Cross-references have been included to assist the user in finding code provisions indexed under another heading. If the index does not appear to list a topic, the code may not regulate the provision.

The following kinds of cross-references appear in the index:

Entry	Purpose/Description
Weeds See Nuisances	Specific nuisances are indexed under Nuisances .
See also Zoning	Additional entries on the subject may appear in Zoning .
Airport See Zoning	The entry for Airport appears as a subheading under Zoning .
Animal control officer See under Animal	The entry appears as a subheading under a different heading.
See also definitions under Character generators.	There are additional, and related, entries under a separate subheading under the same main heading.
Cafe See Cabaret	No entry for Cafe , but refers user to a related subject.

An electronic version of the code may be available. For information, contact the publisher.
